

Counseling Programs Mission Statement

As a premier program in the Pacific Northwest, the mission of the Seattle University graduate counseling program is to prepare diverse, ethical, reflective, clinically skilled, and multiculturally competent counselors to become leaders and advocates who confront injustice and provide quality service in diverse communities.

College of Education Mission Statement

The College of Education strives to be a scholarly learning community of students, staff and faculty characterized by collegiality and collaboration.

The College of Education strives to lead by collaboratively serving others from a grounding in the ethics and values of the Jesuit tradition.

The College of Education strives to provide curriculum relevant to the needs of the profession and the greater society, and supported by the best practice and research.

The College of Education strives to welcome and represent the diversity of society through its teaching, programs, students, and personnel.

The College of Education strives to produce graduates who are compassionate and effective professionals in their respective areas of preparation.