

Additional protection when you travel.

Emergencies can happen while traveling, but help is only a phone call away.
Solutions

Emergency evacuation to the nearest adequate medical facility if one is not available locally, and your condition, ZKLFK LI OHIW XQWUHDWHG FRXOG deteriorates or there is a deterioration of health.*

- Any increase in cost of return transportation above the original cost for you and your travel companion (including dependent children under age 18) if a covered medical emergency delays your return trip.
- Assistance with making emergency travel arrangements and toll-free emergency message relay.
- Friend or family member visitation, including round-trip economy class transportation and up to $150 per day for meals and lodging, up to seven days, if you are hospitalized for seven or more consecutive days.
- Repatriation of your remains if you die while traveling.

Additional services available

- Pre-trip planning assistance, including inoculation and visa requirements in foreign countries; information about cultural norms, special events, temperature and weather information; foreign exchange rates.
- Language interpretation by telephone and referrals to embassies or consulates in an emergency.
- Assistance with locating or replacing lost or stolen items, medications or travel documents; assistance locating medical or dental providers.
- Emergency cash advances (up to $1,500) and emergency medical payment advances (up to $10,000), when secured by a travel insurance policy. If not provided, and all costs of medical treatment are the responsibility of the insured (or his or her travel companion), the maximum amount of cash advances is $1,500. For more information, call 1-800-368-6363 or visit www.aflac.com/travel.

GROUP BENEFIT

