

ALDIS PURS

As Visiting Assistant Professor at the Department of History, Pacific Lutheran University, 2019- present.

As Affiliate Assistant Professor at the Department of Scandinavian Studies, University of Washington, 2012-present.

Organized as Vice President-Conferences for the Association for the Advancement of Baltic Studies

The Conference included presentations from more than 420 scholars in more than 120 panels.

Included the organization of a cultural programme that included a film series with directors and several North America Premier showings.

Included all of the organizational work from hotel and conference facility negotiations and contracts, to conference program creation and execution.

Centered at the School of History and Classics at the University of Manchester, UK from 2000-2007.

Included in-team conferences, presentations at international conferences in 4 countries, and multiple academic publications.

Began as the Research Project: Population Displacement, State

ERASMUS/SOCRATES Co-ordinator for placing students from European Union countries in the University College.

ERASMUS/SOCRATES Co-ordinator for placing Vidzeme University College students in universities across the European Union.

Chief Strategist for the Africa-Baltic Conference, May 1999.

Contributor to "After the Great War. A New Europe 1918-1923" a travelling exhibit of the European Network Remembrance and Solidarity Project. Exhibited in Prague, Czech Republic and Sarajevo, Bosnia-Herzegovina, with five more planned cities upcoming (see <https://www.enrs.eu/afterthegreatwar>).

Research Scholar at the Woodrow Wilson Center for International Studies, Washington, D.C., 1999.

Visiting Historian, Latvia's Museum of the Occupation, 1940-1991, Riga, Latvia, 1998.

Intern, Supreme Council and (Parliament) of the Republic of Latvia, Riga, Latvia, 1993.

Ph.D. Department of History, University of Toronto, 1998

M.A. Department of History, University of Toronto, 1992.

